HIGH AND CENTRAL

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS START

WITHBRIGHT PROSPECT

On Monday, the 10th inst., the High and Central Grammar Schools begin their work for the coming year, with every prospect of the most successful year of their existence. There have been some changes in organization of the primary and the grammar departments, and a general strengthening of the teaching force all round. Miss Needham, so well known for her experience and ability, will be supervising principal of the primary and grammar departments. Miss Galt, of several years' most successful teaching, will be added to the primary, and Miss Loomis, an alumnae of Nebraska University, will take the sixth grade.

Miss Woodford, a graduate of the Los Angeles Normal School, and of the University of California, and of six years' successful experience in teaching in Los Angeles, will teach one of the eighth grades.

Miss York, of Stanford, takes the eighth grade of the High School.

Hereafter, graduates of the High School, recommended by the principal, will be admitted to enter Berkeley without examination.

Chinese Claim Sea, Took Their Cattle

DEPUTY HIGH SHERIFF.

Deputy High Sheriff George Sea returned today from Maui, where he levied execution in the case of Mary Buckle vs. S. Ahmi, wherein judgment was given for $2150 against the defendant, who in the meantime has gone into bankruptcy. Sea had quite a hard time levying on account of various legal technicalities, and incidentally some of the Chinese neighbors of Ahmi tried to make the Deputy High Sheriff appear in the light of almost an ordinary cattle thief.

They alleged that Sea in his round-up of Ahmi's cattle, which were the principal asset to be sold, corralled a number of their animals as well. Ahmi contended that these animals did not belong to him, but others said they did; so Sea held on to them. The Chinese then filed three replevin suits against him. The full list of Sea's alleged inequities is made to appear as follows:

Young Kam claims that Sea took from him seven cows and steers, one heifer and one roan horse, valued together at $230. Sea Chong says that the had and hold Deputy High Sheriff took from him one herd of cows, steers and bulls comprised of 56 head, 35 head of steers and heifers, 1 black mule, 1 grey colt, 1 bay colt, 1 black and white colt, and 1 black colt, of a total value of $1713. Finally Young Kai Hing claims that Sea took from him 1 bay mule, 1 brown mule, 1 black mule, 1 sorrel mare, 1 black stallion, 1 black mare, 1 white mare, 1 bay mare, 1 roan horse, 1 bay mare, 1 black horse 1 bay horse, 1 black mare, and 3 cows, valued at $510.

The sale of these animals was accordingly postponed, the alleged owners furnishing bonds for the value of the animals, which Sea then returned to them. A piece of real estate, 12 cows, 4 calves, 2 horses and 1 mule, concerning which there was no dispute, were sold at auction by Sea.

READY FOR EDITORS

Final plans for the entertainment of the California editors were completed yesterday. Tomorrow morning in the Alameda they arrive, probably soon after 6:30 o'clock, and they will be given a welcome such as will give them their first lasting and favorable impression of Hawaii.

At 11 o'clock they will call on Governor Carter and at noon they will lunch at the Moana hotel. In the afternoon they will ride about town in automobiles, taking in the sights. All who have automobiles to take part are to be sure to have them at the Moana hotel at 2:30 o'clock.

In the evening the editorial party joins in the great Alameda night celebration at the Hawaiian hotel.

Dwight To Run

FOR SUPERVISOR

From Honolulu

Supervisor Samuel C. Dwight was not present at the caucus of Fifth District delegates on account of the important work that had to be transacted by the County Committee. When seen later, he was asked as to the talk by the Advertiser in regard to his running for the Senate. He said, "I do not propose to run for the Senate, nor as Supervisor-at-Large, but as a Supervisor from the district of Honolulu."

He emphatically denied any intention to run for any other office than that named. He said that his business requires him at his office every day, so that he could not entertain any thought for the Upper House of the Legislature.

John Pao, from Aiea, will run for the House from the Sixth Precinct. He and Representative Thomas Kalawala were the aspirants for a seat in the House at the next term. As there was no way to settle the matter, both men agreed that as they were running as delegates to the County Convention, the man securing the largest number of votes should get the choice. Tot lot fell to John Pao, who drew 169 votes, standing fourth in his precinct, as against 154 votes cast for Thomas Kalawala.

The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day. For $1 a year.
